

3 DAYS IN

LOS ANGELES

HOLLYWOOD

Iconic views

A CREATIVE ITINERARY GUIDE

★ Hollywood icons, beach vibes, culture, and sunset moments.

Coastal energy

Explore like a local

Eat well

DAY 1: HOLLYWOOD & ICONS

DAY 2: BEACHES & COAST

DAY 3: CULTURE & LIFESTYLE

La is always a good idea. ♥

Bookyne.com

DAY 1

HOLLYWOOD & ICONIC LANDMARKS

Classic LA firsts: stars, views, sunset, and nightlife.

MORNING

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Hollywood Walk of Fame + TCL Chinese Theatre

Start in the heart of Hollywood. See famous stars, celebrity handprints, and classic movie history on Hollywood Boulevard.

Go early for fewer crowds and better photos.

Parking is limited—garage parking or rideshare works well.

HOLLYWOOD BOULEVARD

AFTERNOON

12:30 PM - 4:30 PM

Griffith Observatory + Hollywood Sign Views

Head uphill for one of LA's best panoramas. Explore the observatory, then enjoy classic Hollywood Sign views and a wide-angle look over the city.

Best light: mid-to-late afternoon into sunset.

Top parking fills quickly—use the shuttle if needed.

EVENING

5:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Sunset Boulevard + West Hollywood

Shift from sightseeing to lifestyle. Sunset Boulevard brings music history, energy, and iconic LA atmosphere. West Hollywood is ideal for dinner and a more polished social scene.

Reserve dinner in advance, especially on weekends.

NIGHTLIFE OPTION

8:30 PM - LATE

Rooftop bars or comedy clubs

Choose skyline views and cocktails, or experience LA's strong stand-up comedy scene.

Nightlife starts late in LA—plan accordingly.

WHY THIS DAY WORKS

- Essential first-time sights
- Big views + classic photo moments
- Smooth transition from landmarks to nightlife

ROUTE:

Hollywood Blvd → Griffith Observatory → Sunset Blvd → West Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD BLVD

GRIFFITH OBSERVATORY

SUNSET BLVD

WEST HOLLYWOOD

Best for: first-time visitors, couples, photographers

Getting around: rideshare is easiest

DAY 2 BEACHES & COASTAL EXPERIENCES

Ocean air, boardwalk energy, bike paths, and sunset on the water.

good vibes only ♡

MORNING

Santa Monica Pier + Beach Walk

Begin at one of LA's most iconic coastal spots. Enjoy the pier, beach views, palm-lined scenery, and a relaxed California atmosphere.

Third Street Promenade is great for coffee or breakfast.

TIP:

Arrive early for a quieter experience.

SANTA MONICA PIER

SANTA MONICA BEACH

AFTERNOON

Venice Beach + Boardwalk

Head south for a more artistic, raw, and creative side of LA. Explore the boardwalk, street performers, Muscle Beach, and the skate park.

For a more curated vibe, walk to Abbot Kinney Boulevard.

VENICE BEACH BOARDWALK

LATE AFTERNOON

Bike Ride Along the Coast

Ride the Marvin Braude Bike Trail between Santa Monica and Venice for an efficient, scenic oceanfront experience.

Bike rentals are easy to find near the pier.

TIP:

Plan 1-2 hours depending on your pace.

COASTAL BIKE RIDE

WHY THIS DAY WORKS

Classic coastal LA

Easy route with minimal backtracking

Best mix of energy and relaxation

EVENING

Marina del Rey Sunset or Beach Dinner

End the day with calmer waterfront views, marina scenery, and a more refined atmosphere than Venice.

TIP:

Arrive just before sunset for the best coastal light.

MARINA DEL REY

NIGHTLIFE OPTION

Santa Monica Promenade or beach bars

Choose a lively but accessible night out at the Third Street Promenade, or keep it casual with coastal bars.

A good fit for travelers who want an easy, low-pressure nightlife scene.

THIRD STREET PROMENADE

BEACH BARS

ROUTE: SANTA MONICA → VENICE BEACH → BIKE TRAIL → MARINA DEL REY

BEST FOR: first-time visitors, active travelers, couples

GETTING AROUND: walk, bike, or short rideshare hops

DAY 3

CULTURE, LIFESTYLE & CITY HIGHLIGHTS

Food halls, design icons, luxury streets, and a memorable last night.

Make it a day to remember

MORNING

1 Downtown Los Angeles (DTLA)

Start in the cultural and architectural core of the city. Grab breakfast or brunch at Grand Central Market, then explore nearby landmarks like the Bradbury Building and Walt Disney Concert Hall.

DTLA is great for culture-focused travelers.

A walking or food tour adds local context.

Grand Central Market

Walt Disney Concert Hall

AFTERNOON

2 Beverly Hills + Rodeo Drive

Head west for LA's luxury side—designer boutiques, palm-lined streets, and one of the city's most photogenic districts.

Even without shopping, the walk is part of the experience.

Don't rush—take time to enjoy the atmosphere.

Bradbury Building

Beverly Hills / Rodeo Drive

LATE AFTERNOON

3 The Grove + Original Farmers Market

A balanced stop for shopping, snacks, and a relaxed open-air atmosphere. Ideal as a transition between daytime sightseeing and your final evening.

Plan 1–2 hours.

The Grove

Original Farmers Market

EVENING

4 Sunset Strip or Rooftop Dining

Close the itinerary with a high-quality LA experience—music history and nightlife on the Sunset Strip, or a scenic rooftop dinner with city views.

A great final-night choice for couples or lifestyle travelers.

Sunset Strip

Rooftop Dining & City Views

NIGHTLIFE OPTION

5 Live music, lounges, or clubs

Pick the mood that fits your energy: classic LA live music, upscale lounges, or a more high-energy club scene.

Choose a venue near dinner or your hotel to limit travel time.

Route: DTLA → Beverly Hills → The Grove → Sunset Strip

WHY THIS DAY WORKS

- ★ Shows a different side of LA
- ★ Blends culture with luxury and lifestyle
- ★ Strong finish without wasted time

Best for:

culture lovers, couples, lifestyle travelers

Getting around:

rideshare saves time 