

5 DAYS IN

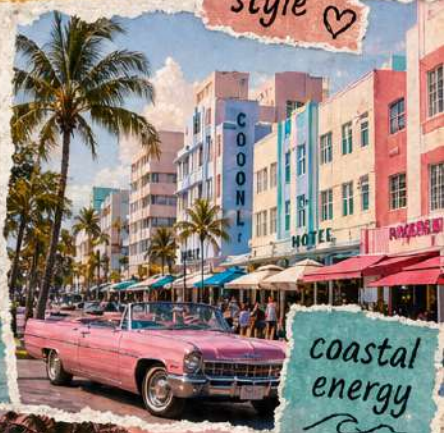

MIAMI

A CREATIVE ITINERARY GUIDE

sun + style

Beaches, art, Cuban culture, nature escapes, skyline views, and nightlife.

coastal energy

explore like a local best sunset spots

DAY 1:

SOUTH BEACH & ART DECO

DAY 2:

WYNWOOD & DESIGN DISTRICT

DAY 3:

LITTLE HAVANA & DOWNTOWN

DAY 4:

EVERGLADES OR KEY BISCAYNE

DAY 5:

BRICKELL, BAY & NIGHTLIFE

PRACTICAL TIPS

- ✓ Stay in South Beach or Brickell
- ✓ Use Uber for long distances
- ✓ Walk or bike in South Beach
- ✓ Book tours in advance

BEST TIME TO VISIT:
November to April

Miami is always a good idea.

DAY 1

SOUTH BEACH, OCEAN DRIVE & ART DECO

Classic Miami firsts: beach time, pastel streets, and sunset views.

MORNING

8:00 AM -
11:30 AM

South Beach

Start your Miami trip early at South Beach when the weather is cooler and the crowds are lighter. Relax on the sand, walk the shoreline, or rent a bike to explore the area efficiently.

Best time: early morning for cooler weather and fewer crowds.

soft sand & clear water ♡

AFTERNOON

12:00 PM -
4:00 PM

Ocean Drive + Art Deco

Head to Ocean Drive for pastel Art Deco buildings, lively cafés, and one of the most recognizable streets in Miami. It's ideal for walking, photos, and soaking up the classic South Beach atmosphere.

Walkable area—take your time and stop for lunch or coffee.

pastel vibes all day ♡

EVENING

5:30 PM -
7:30 PM

South Pointe Park

Finish the day at South Pointe Park, one of the best sunset spots in Miami. Enjoy views of the water, the skyline, and cruise ships moving through the channel.

Arrive before sunset for the best light and views.

sunset magic ♡

NIGHT OPTION

8:00 PM -
LATE

Dinner or a casual Ocean Drive night

Keep the evening easy with dinner near South Beach or a laid-back stroll along Ocean Drive after dark.

South Beach is energetic, but this first day can stay simple and relaxed.

Ocean Drive after dark ♡

Tip: South Beach is fully walkable. Use a bike to save time and cover more ground.

WHY THIS DAY WORKS

- ✓ Easy first-day layout
- ✓ Classic Miami atmosphere
- ✓ Little backtracking ♡

ROUTE:

SOUTH BEACH

OCEAN DRIVE

SOUTH POINTE PARK

♡ Best for: first-time visitors, couples ♡ Getting around: walk or bike ♡

DAY 2

WYNNOOD WALLS & DESIGN DISTRICT

colorful · raw · inspiring

Street art, brunch, bold design, and creative energy.

MORNING

10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

1) Wynwood Walls

Start at the open-air museum with large-scale murals by international artists. The surrounding streets are filled with graffiti and bold public art.

★ Late morning is ideal: fewer crowds and softer heat.

open-air art museum

graffiti & good vibes

MIDDAY

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM

2) Brunch in Wynwood

Enjoy casual dining, creative cafés, and a late morning or early afternoon brunch stop.

☕ Take your time here—this is one of Miami's best food-and-art neighborhoods.

brunch well

public art

AFTERNOON

2:30 PM - 5:00 PM

3) Miami Design District

In the afternoon, shift to luxury fashion, modern architecture, public art, and sleek storefronts.

★ Very different from Wynwood—clean, polished, design-forward.

modern architecture

luxury · style · design

OPTIONAL EVENING

6:00 PM - LATE

4) Optional dinner or gallery stop

Wrap up with a relaxed dinner, dessert, or another round through Wynwood/Design District if your energy holds up.

♥ Plenty of great options for every mood and budget.

WHY THIS DAY WORKS

- ✓ Best art-focused day
- ✓ Easy pairing of two nearby neighborhoods
- ✓ Strong mix of culture and lifestyle

ROUTE:

Tip: Visit Wynwood in the late morning to avoid crowds and harsh midday heat.

DAY 3

LITTLE HAVANA & DOWNTOWN MIAMI

Cuban culture, local flavor, waterfront views, and city energy.

MORNING

10:00 AM -
12:00 PM

1. Calle Ocho

Explore Little Havana—the heart of Miami’s Cuban heritage. Stroll through colorful streets, enjoy live music, murals, local cafés, and the vibrant cultural atmosphere.

Cultura, café y sabor

MIDDAY

12:30 PM -
3:00 PM

2. Domino Park + Cuban coffee

Watch locals play dominoes under the trees at Domino Park, then stop for Cuban coffee at a traditional café.

A great area to slow down and observe local life.

AFTERNOON

3:30 PM -
6:00 PM

3. Food tour or Cuban lunch

Savor authentic Cuban dishes—think ropa vieja, lechón, tostones, and more. A guided food or cultural tour adds valuable context and hidden gems.

TIP: This is one of the best days to book a guided food or cultural tour.

OPTIONAL EVENING

6:30 PM -
LATE

4. Downtown Miami + Bayside Marketplace

Shift to the waterfront for skyline views, shopping, boat tours, and a lively atmosphere. Walk the bay, grab a drink, and enjoy the city buzz.

5. Optional sunset stroll or casual evening

Keep it light in the evening with a sunset walk along the water, people-watching, or a relaxed dinner at Bayside or Downtown.

city lights, good nights

WHY THIS DAY WORKS

- ✓ Most cultural day
- ✓ Strong local identity
- ✓ Food + city views in one route

ROUTE:

CALLE OCHO

DOMINO PARK

CUBAN LUNCH

DOWNTOWN

BAYSIDE

Best for: food lovers, culture seekers, curious travelers

Getting around: rideshare between neighborhoods

DAY 4

Pick the version that fits your travel style.

EVERGLADES OR KEY BISCAIYNE ADVENTURE

OPTION 1

EVERGLADES NATIONAL PARK

the adventurous choice

Venture into the wild side of South Florida. Glide across the wetlands on an exciting airboat ride, spot alligators and native wildlife, and explore vast sawgrass marshes. It's a completely different world that shows a side of Miami most visitors never see.

airboat adventure

see gators in the wild endless sawgrass

Tip: Best for travelers who want something unique beyond the beach.

OR

OPTION 2

KEY BISCAIYNE

the relaxed option

Head to Key Biscayne for a slower pace and stunning ocean views. Enjoy quieter beaches, scenic bike paths, and a laid-back island atmosphere. Don't miss Bill Baggs Cape Florida State Park and the historic lighthouse.

Note: A calmer day with beach time and beautiful views.

quiet beaches

historic lighthouse

scenic bike paths

WHICH ONE SHOULD YOU CHOOSE?

Everglades = adventure

Key Biscayne = relaxation

Everglades = wildlife + airboat

Key Biscayne = beach + lighthouse

Tip: Choose Everglades for adventure and uniqueness, or Key Biscayne for relaxation.

PLANNING NOTES

Schedule outdoor activities in the morning

Book tours in advance

Use rideshare or a tour pickup for ease

Best for: nature lovers, couples, flexible travelers

Getting around: car, rideshare, or guided tour

DAY 5

BOAT TOUR, BRICKELL & NIGHTLIFE

Skyline views, Biscayne Bay, modern Miami, and a memorable last night.

MORNING

11:00 AM -
1:00 PM

Biscayne Bay boat tour

A boat cruise is one of Miami's most memorable experiences. Enjoy skyline views, Star Island, celebrity homes, and the best of Miami—all from the water.

Sunset boat tours offer the best light and atmosphere for photos.

on the water

AFTERNOON

2:00 PM -
5:00 PM

Explore Brickell

Brickell is the modern, upscale side of Miami. Towering high-rises, shopping, cafés, and top dining make it a perfect contrast to South Beach and Little Havana.

Walk the Brickell City Centre, Mary Brickell Village, or stroll the riverwalk.

modern miami

hello, brickell

EVENING

5:30 PM -
8:00 PM

Dinner in Brickell or by the bay

End your trip with a refined evening—waterfront dining, amazing cuisine, and stunning skyline views. A perfect way to toast to an unforgettable Miami getaway.

Make a reservation in advance, especially on weekends.

rooftop vibes

dinner with a view

NIGHTLIFE

8:30 PM -
LATE

Nightlife option

Head up to rooftop bars, chic lounges, or world-class clubs. Miami nightlife is one of the best in the world—make the most of your last night!

Dress to impress at top venues and check guest lists.

HOW TO PLAN THIS DAY EFFICIENTLY

- ✓ Group activities by area
- ✓ Reserve evenings for dining and nightlife
- ✓ Book tours in advance

ROUTE:

BISCAYNE BAY

BRICKELL

DINNER

NIGHTLIFE

TRIP WRAP-UP

- ♥ South Beach
- ♥ Art + culture
- ♥ Nature day
- ♥ Skyline finale

♥ Best for: couples, nightlife fans, first-time visitors

| Getting around: rideshare is easiest at night

